EDUCATION

2000 – 2003 University of Vigo (Pontevedra - Spain). As part of the Phd Courses in Animal Biology and Ethology presents the Thesis entitled "Ecology and behaviour of Mediterranean Common bottlenose dolphins (Tursiops truncatus) along the north-eastern coast of Sardinia, Italy". Grade: First class honours.

1999 – 2000 University Roma Tre (Rome - Italy). Field research specialization post-graduate in marine mammals' research studying bottlenose dolphins ecology and behavior along Sardinian coast, Italy.

1998 – 1999 University of Santiago de Compostela (A Coruña - Spain). Master's Degree in Animal Biology. Graduated with distinction and first class honours.

1995 – 1997 University of Santiago de Compostela (A Coruña - Spain). Bachelor's Degree in Biology. Graduated with distinction and first class honours.

- Member of the networking, researcher and biologist studying stranded marine mammals, sharks and turtles along the north western coast of Spain.
- Participation in more than 50 necropsies, rescue and rehabilitation of alive marine mammals.
- Boat based and land based observations.

INVITED PARTICIPATION IN WORKSHOPS AND SEMINARS

Mr. Díaz López has delivered a number of lectures and public talks on cetacean Research, marine biology and conservation, and he has been invited to make presentations in meeting, workshops and seminars, the most recent and representative being:

- Plenary speaker in the International workshop on bottlenose dolphin conservation and monitoring in the North-Western Mediterranean Sea in the Villa Méditerranée, Marseille, France. Organized by GDEGeM project, the GIS3M, in partnership with the French marine protected areas agency, the WWF France, the ACCOBAMS and the Pelagos Sanctuary. 1st December 2015.
- Plenary speaker in a seminar about cetaceans research organized by the Irstea - National Research Institute of Science and Technology for Environment and Agriculture in Bordeaux, French Government. 8th December 2015.
- Invited keynote speaker - Conference entitled “Behavioural studies and their importance in cetaceans’ research and conservation projects”. University of Santiago de Compostela, Faculty of Biology. Spain, November 2015.
- Seminar about dolphins research and conservation organized by the Environmental Agency of Abu Dhabi, UEA. Abu Dhabi, UEA November 2014.
- Plenary speaker in the workshop organized by the Canary Island Government (Cabildo de Gran Canaria) about the Special Protected Areas for dolphins and the potential impact caused by the aquaculture industry. Canary Islands, Spain, October 2014.

Curriculum vitae Mr. Bruno Díaz López

- Invited speaker – workshop entitled “Bottlenose dolphin’s conservation: what we can learn from different resident populations? European Cetacean Society, Setubal, Portugal, April 2013.
- Invited speaker in the workshop of the Latin American Specialists on Aquatic Mammals. Conference entitled: Common bottlenose dolphins and marine fin fish farms: co-existence or conflict? Puerto Madryn, Argentina, September 2012.
- Invited keynote speaker - Conference entitled “Behavioural studies and their importance in the cetaceans conservation”. University Autonoma of Barcelona, Faculty of Veterinary. Barcelona, Spain, April 2012.
- Invited speaker: In the international conference about Marine Mammals in Israel. Conference entitled: Interaction between common bottlenose dolphins and marine fin fish farms. Israel Marine Mammal Research & Assistance Center (IMMRAC), Tel-aviv, Israel, October 2011.
- Invited speaker – Workshop entitled “Cetaceans and fisheries on Spanish coasts: interaction or conflict”. Environmental Sciences Center (CEMACAM), Murcia. May 2011.
- Invited keynote speaker - Conference entitled “Monitoring coastal bottlenose dolphin populations”. University Autonoma of Barcelona, Faculty of veterinary. Barcelona, Spain, November 2010.
- Invited speaker - Conference entitled “Predation and Competition: the impact of aquaculture and fisheries on bottlenose dolphins in Sardinia, Italy. RIMMO conference ” 17 ème Conférence Internationale sur les Cétacés en Méditerranée, Nice France, 16 January 2010.
- Invited keynote speaker - Online conference entitled “El impacto de la acuicultura en los mamíferos marinos – Impact of aquaculture on marine mammals”. Aquacet (Peru), 19 December 2008.
- Invited keynote speaker - Conference entitled “El impacto de la acuicultura en los mamíferos marinos - Impact of aquaculture on marine mammals” Parque de las ciencias Granada, Spain. 20-21 November 2008.
- Invited speaker - Conference entitled “Whistles characteristics and repertoire of wild bottlenose dolphins in Sardinia Island, Italy. RIMMO conference ” 16 ème Conférence

Curriculum vitae Mr. Bruno Díaz López

Internationale sur les Cétacés en Méditerranée, Nice France, 15 November 2008.

- Invited keynote speaker - Seminars entitled “Cetáceos y acuicultura: sinergias y posibilidades – Cetaceans and aquaculture: problems and conflicts” Fundación Gypaetus and Ministry of Agriculture and fishery of Andalusia, Spain. 8, 9, 10 April 2008. Malaga, Almeria and Granada, Spain.
- Invited speaker - Workshop entitled “Cetaceans & Fisheries in Italy”, - Agreement on the Conservation of Cetaceans in the Black Sea, Mediterranean Sea and contiguous Atlantic area (ACCOBAMS) and Italian Ministry of Agriculture and Fisheries (MiPAAF). Rome, 10-11 September 2007.
- Invited speaker - Seminar entitled “Interacción entre mamíferos marinos y actividades humanas (pesca, turismo y acuicultura) – Interaction between marine mammals and human activities”. Sanxenxo, Pontevedra, Spain. 21 September 2006.
- Invited keynote speaker - Seminar entitled “Estudio de los mamíferos marinos en su medio natural - Research on bottlenose dolphin populations in the wild” BALAENA, University Complutense of Madrid, Faculty of Veterinary. Madrid, Spain. 11 – 12 December 2004.
- Invited keynote speaker - Conference entitled “Investigación de los cetáceos en la naturaleza - Research on cetacean populations in the wild”, La Graña Marine Research Center, University of Santiago, SGHN, Ferrol, Spain. 18, 19, 20 August 2001.
- Seminar entitled “Marine mammals research”. World Wide Fund, Italy. Sperlonga, Latina, Italy. 5 May 2000.
- Seminar entitled “Methods of research on cetacean population in nature” for the PhD course in Biology. Faculty of Biology, University of Roma Tre. Rome, Italy. 29 March 2000.

REVIEWER FOR SCIENTIFIC JOURNALS

Reviewer for scientific journals including “Biological Conservation”, “Marine Biology”, “Marine Ecology”, “Mammalian Biology”, “ICES Journal of Marine Science”, “Aquaculture Environmental Interactions”, “Marine Mammals Science”, “Journal of Marine Biological Ass. Chrome navigator.

- Statistical software: Minitab, PAST, R, Statistica y SPSS.
- Geographical information systems GIS and geostatistical software: Surfer 8, 11, ArcGIS 3.2, ArcMap 9, QGIS.
- Specific social structure, mark-recapture and photo-identification software as SOCPROG, FINEX, FINSCAN, DARWIN, DISCOVERY, DISTANCE, and MARK.
- Bioacoustics and PAM software as Soundruler, Raven, Audacity, Spectrogram, PAMGUARD.
- Ecological modelling software as ECOPATH and ECOSIM.
- He has produced databases for scientific data entry and management of several Dolphin Research projects in Microsoft Access.
- Webmaster, he created and manages the BDRI's website (<http://www.thebdri.com>).

OTHER ATTITUDES AND SKILLS

- Boat license and experience with boats up to 24m.
- European car driving license B.
- Experience in snorkelling and diving (P.A.D.I. Certification).
- Good attitudes for physical activities (surfer and athletic runner).
- High photography knowledge (Digital & Classic).
- High experience as curator of salt-water and fresh-water aquariums.
- Attitudes for group Works and exposition in public.
- Good adaptability and personal initiative.
